their disposal for original works and repairs, nearly Rs. 8,858;
and this sum, they consider is not sufficient to meet the wants of the Municipality. The Dewan is, therefore,
pleased to accede to the proposal of the Board to make over to them the Government
share of the income from the Octroi on Coconuts and Betel
Leaves, realized in the Town of Mysore.

The Board in para 9
of the Proceedings, remark that the attempts made in 1871/75 to obtain
some income from the sale of Municipal Rubbish, failed; and ^{that} they have resolved to make another attempt in the current year

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, (Local Boards Branch-Municipal),—dated 6th October 1893.

CAMP NO. 27—32, DATED MYSORE, 6TH OCTOBER 1893.

ORDER.—Sayer which was formerly collected at the place of production on the articles noted in the margin* at the rates noted against them, was abolished throughout the Province in 1879, but it was ordered to be levied as Octroi in important Municipalities and credited, a half to the Provincial Revenue and the other half to the Municipalities concerned. The duty on these articles is now collected only in twelve† Municipalities at the rates noted in the margin‡ and half the revenue derived from items 1, 2, 3 and 5 and one fourth of the Revenue from item No. 4, are credited to Provincial Revenues, with the exception of the duty levied in the City of Bangalore on Tobacco imported from Her Majesty's Territories and of the duty collected on cocoanuts and betel-leaves in the City of Mysore, which go entirely to the Municipalities concerned. The amount credited to Provincial Revenues under the above arrangements in 1890—91 was Rs. 10,774—13—11 as shewn below :—

1. Cocoanut fresh at Rs.	0	8	0	per 100.
